STALWARTS NOT AGAINST HUGHES

No Opposition to the Justice in Washington, it is Said

PENROSE DOUBTFUL

Belief is That All Leaders Will Let Republican Convention Declare Its Preference

Washington, June 1—The Republican Convention will meet in Chicago next Wednesday. For the first time since 1883, when Mr. Harrison was nominated after the Convention had been in session nearly a week, the delegates will meet with no candidate certain of election on the first ballot.

Most of the constructive minds of the Republican party are now in Chicago and Washington gets its principal information of the progress of events in Republican circles from the Chicago dispatches. The one man who could by a single word write the history of the entire convention in advance of its meeting, is attending to his duties on the Supreme Bench in absolute silence, so that all that comes from Chicago is after all guess work, intelligent and interesting as it is.

There is a firm conviction, however, in Washington, that the press dispatches from Chicago are doubtless, unintentionally creating a wrong impression. Every dispatch represents the so-called Old Guard as devoting all its energy and skill and experience to defeating the nomination of Justice Hughes. Washington opinion does not coincide with this view For instance, former Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts, who for years has been one of the foremost leaders of the Old Guard, has announced again and again that he favors the nomination of Mr. Hughes. Again, Senator Penrose is certainly one of the Old Guard leaders who has never yet joined the opposition to Mr. Hughes. On the contrary, his friends in Washington know that Senator Penrose has only one purpose in mind, namely, the nomination of a man who will win.

Chairman Hilles, of the National Committee, has never declared himself, because of his official position, but there is nowhere authority for the statement that he is opposing Mr. Hughes. Secretary Reynolds, of the Committee, is nowhere on reliable record against Mr. Hughes. Former Governor Hadley, of Missouri, certainly one of the most compelling characters in the Republican party, has declared himself for Justice Hughes. Senator Lodge although a lifelong friend of Colonel Roosevelt and a colleague of Senator Weeks, a candidate for nomination, is for Mr. Hughes. Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, and Senator Jones of Washington, representing opposite geographical ends of this country, have both declared for Mr. Hughes.

It does not seem accurate therefore to persist in the belief that veterans of the Republican party are in a conspiracy to defeat Mr. Hughes. It seems closer to the true situation to believe that all these men will let the convention declare for its honest preference. It is the confident belief in Washington that Mr. Hughes will accept the nomination, but it is readily understood here that the position of Mr. Hitchcock, at Chicago, is daily growing more difficult in view of the uncertainty which only Mr. Hughes can clear away. The Roosevelt sentiment which appears to be stampeding Chicago a week ahead of time is not carrying Washington off its feet.

Mr. Roosevelt's theatrical tour of the West at this moment is beclouding the judgment and arousing the wild enthusiasm of many thousands of his hearers, but very few of those hearers will have real votes in the convention. The action of the German-American Alliance in Chicago yesterday in notifying Chairman Hilles that the German-Americans will not support Mr. Roosevelt, found its natural echo today in Colonel Roosevelt's savaged enunciation of "hyjhenate" treason in Kansas City.

MAN AND WIFE BECOME INSANE

Try to Burn Home and Terrorize People of Frenchtown

Elkton, Md., June 1—Mr. and Mrs Joseph M. Lodge, who live at Scotland Point, on Elk river, a short distance south of this city, became mentally deranged Saturday and with several guns and three dogs in their boat crossed Elk river to Frenchtown, where they terrorized several families. They were finally located at a bungalow, where they were detained until Sheriff Barnes and several deputies brought them to Elkton.

Mrs. Lodge, who is a native of Pennsylvania, has had several previous lapses, but Mr. Lodge had never shown signs of mental trouble. When the officials went to Scotland Point for their effects they found that the floor had been saturated with coal oil and fire started at several places, but had gone out after charring the floors. They were committed to the State Hospital in Cambridge, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Lodge are about 45 years old.

BROTHERS DROWN

North Carolina Youth Dies in Heroic Effort to Save Smaller Victim

Kinston, N. C., June 1—When Roy Spence, 17 and Burrell Spence, 13, sons of Maley Spence, a Neuse township planter, were drowned in Neuse river Sunday afternoon, Roy Spence died in a heroic effort to save the smaller victim.

The two boys, together with another brother, two uncles and a sixth lad, left home for the river to swim. They went into the stream at a remote point some miles from here. Burrell Spence alone remained in the water when he struck a deep place. He could swim a little or none, and was drowned when Roy Spence plunged overboard and swam to his aid. The smaller boy clutched the larger's leg and carried him down with him. The two drowned while the boys on the bank, unable to swim, looked on helpless to assist them.

OSBORNE WANTS POST BACG.

To Apply for Reinstatement as Warden of Sing Sing.

New York, June 1.—Thomas M. Osborne, formerly warden at Sing Sing Prison, said yesterday:

"I expect within a short time to apply to Superintendent Carter for reinstatement as warden of Sing Sing. My application for leave of absence was based on conditions of fact which no longer exist. The felony indictment went to trial and was thrown out of court. The misdemeanor indictment has had three of its six counts stricken out. Is it right that legal delays and technicalities should be used to keep me away from my work at Sing Sing?"

It was learned that Mr. Osborne is awaiting a decision by the appellate division as to the legal right of the trial court to strike out one count of the misdemeanor indictment.

DEMOCRATIC HOSTS GATHER

State Officials, Delegates and Others Rush to Roanoke

DOVE OF PEACE THERE

Indications Point to Election of Harry R. Houston, of Hampton, Permanent Chairman

The gathering of the Democratic hosts in Roanoke tomorrow will, it is believed be tranquil. A week ago there stalked on the State political horizon the specter of intraparty strife, and delegates from both factions sharpened their knives for what promised to be the most spectacular fight in years, The eve of the convention, however, finds the dove of peace on the throne, apparently not to be unperched.

"I looked forward with great pleasure to a harmonious convention," said Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson, last night just before he boarded the 9:25 o'clock train at Richmond for Roanoke. "Everything points to a splendid meeting of united Democrats which will put the party in the right trim to prosecute a vigorous campaign for President Wilson."

The convention machinery will go into motion tonight, with a meeting of the State Democratic Committee which will elect a temporary chairman for tomorrow's meeting. This officer will have the double duty of calling the convention to order and making the keynote speech. It is generally assumed that the committee will elect Representative E. W. Saunders, of the Fifth District.

The convention proper will be called to order at noon tomorrow in the new auditorium. This hall has a ground floor seating capacity of about 1,500 and it is believed from reports that have reached the State Committee that the delegates and their friends will comfortably fill it.

Preceeding the convention the ten congressional districts will hold separate meetings of their own for the purpose of nominating the five district members of the State committee. The nominations later will be confirmed by the convention.

All signs point to the unopposed election of Harry R. Houston, of Hampton, as permanent chairman of the convention. Friends of the Speaker of the House of Delegates, it is stated, have thoroughly canvassed the situation, and have received enough assurances of support to secure his election.

Once called to order, the convention will proceed to the appointment of committees on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions. As soon as the convention is on a permanent footing, it will take up the election of delegates to the St. Louis national convention—its most important funcion in a presidential year. The body will elect a member of the National Democratic Committee, twenty delegates and an equal number of alternates, four delegates at large and alternates for each, ten presidential electors and fifty members to constitute the State committee— five from each congressional district.

Representative Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, will be elected national committeeman, in conformity with the program of the peace conference which secured the retirement of Rorer A. James from the race. The remainder of the program calls for the election of Mr. James as chairman of the State Committee, and the election of Representative Hal D. Flood as one of the four delegates-at-large. The other three delegates-at large, following established precedent, will be Senators Martin and Swanson and Governor Stuart.

Attorney-General Pollard, has issued a statement contradicting reports from Washington to the effect that he might yet announce himself as a candidate for the Senate in opposition to Senator Swanson. He said:

"I never have considered being a candidate for the United States Senate, nor have I held any conference with others on the subject. Months ago I expressed my intention to announce at the proper time my candidacy for Governor. I have not changed this intention."

KITCHENER ASSAILED

British War Head Charged With Gross Mismanagement

London, Jaune 1—Lord Kitchener, head of the British war office, was made the target for the harshest criticism heard in Commons, since the beginning of the war, yesterday afternoon, when Col. Winston Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, arose to discuss a motion to reduce Kitchener's salary.

Churchill charged the war office with grave misjudgement, inefficiency and defective organization.

"For every six soldiers in the British army we have but one rifle leveled at the enemy," declared the former admiralty chief.

Churchill scored the war office for breaking up seasoned battalions, by sending them into slaughter while they had thousands of other troops behind the lines.

FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK

Intense Artillery Duels Continue Throughout Last Night

DEPOTS ARE SHELLED

Kaiser Throws 75,000 Fresh Troops Into Action at Verdun During Past week

Berlin, June 1.— French troops have captured 400 yards of German first-line trenches by a counter-attack southeast of Dead Man's Hill, the war office admitted this afternoon.

On the east bank of the Meuse violent artillery duels continued last night.

Paris, June 1.— Complete repulse of a German attack on the eastern slopes of Dead Man's Hill was announced by the war office today.

The Germans bombarded all French positions in the Dead Man's Hill region with the greatest violence throughout yesterday.

Intense artillery duels continued throughout last night on the east bank of the Meuse, but there were no other important infantry actions around Verdun.

French air squadrons early today dropped twenty shells on the Thionville and Audun stations and fifty shells on the supply depots at Azannes.

The Germans have thrown more than 75,000 fresh troops into action at Verdun since a week ago today, according to reports received by the War Office. At least five new German divisions have been engaged on both banks of the Meuse.

Since February 1,000,000 Germans have been in action at Verdun, according to war office figures. Of this number it is estimated that about 300,000 have been killed or put out of action.

RICHMOND TO REOPEN

Many Improvements Added to Popular King Street Theatre

Manager Steele, of the Alexandria Amusement Company, proprietors of the Richmond Theatre, after a month of the most strenuous labor, during which time mechanics have fairly swarmed over the building has completed the improvements in the theatre and the formal opening is announced for tomorrow night.

Patrons of the popular theatre will be impressed with the many changes that have been made, the principal ones being the addition of a stage and a balcony and the raising of the roof of an auditorium so as to give the maximum amount of ventilation.

From the lobby on the first floor these are two broad stairways, with easy treads to a mezzanaine balcony from which another broad stairway leads to the balcony. The balcony will seat more than 350 people giving the theatre a seating capacity of more than 950. The stage is equipped with all modern devices and Manager Steele will be prepared to show large theatrical companies in case he desires. For the present the moving pictures are to be continued but later on vaudeville features may be added. The theatre has been given a fresh coat of paint and looks most attractive and inviting.

STABS WIFE TWICE

Physician Tells Coroner He First Gave Her Chloroform

New York, June 1—"Come quick! I have just stabbed my wife. Bring an ambulance and patrol wagon."

This was the message received over the telephone yesterday afternoon by Coroner Wagner, of Brooklyn. The police were rushed to 709 De Kalb avenue, where they found Mrs. Samuel Einterz dying from two stab wounds. Her husband a physician, was calmly awaiting arrest.

Dr. Einterz said he had first chloroformed his wife, and while she was unconscious, had stabbed her with his surgeon's scalpel. He told the detectives she had confessed to receiving attentions from another man

The wounded woman, who is only 20 years old, was rushed to St. John's Hospital, where little hope is held out for her recovery. Her husband 10 years her senior, was locked up. The couple have been married less than a year.

GIRL WHO REFUSES HIM HEIR

Wyoming Rancher Leaves Fortune To Love Of His Youth

Cumberland, Md., June 1—A notice in a local paper yesterday that the address of Mrs. Minnie L. Grubb was desired and that she had been made the sole heir of the estate of H. L. Maines, a bachelor of Rock Springs, Wyo., formerly of Keyser, W. Va., brought out the fact that her mother, Mrs. A. R. Rice, who married a second time, resides in this city. It was ascertained that Mrs. Grubb lives at 52 Second street north west Washington.

When Minnie L. Foreman was a girl of 16 she worked in the family of Maines mother at Keyser. He then proposed marriage, but the girl refused. He went West, but kept up a correspondence for some years. Eventually he stopped, but about a year after Miss Foreman married Grubb, Maines wrote that he intended leaving her his property, which consists of ranches valued at between $50,000 and $100,000.

J. W. Harting, who was ranch manager for Maines, was intrusted with the task of locating Mrs. Grubb to inform her of the provisions of the will.

PEACE INDICATIONS.

Socialist Member of German Reichstag Defends President Wilson.

Berlin, May 31.—In the reichstag yesterday Gustave Noske, socialist, protested against the speech of Herr Hirsch, national liberal, of Essen, which, he declared, was calculated to prevent the neutral powers from mediating in behalf of peace.

Herr Noske, especially objected to Herr Hirsch's "scolding tone" toward President Wilson. He added:

"There is no disposition among the German people to hazard the lives of further hundreds of thousands for fantastic plans of conquest. The people at the front and at home want no more bloodshed. The masses reject the thought of continuing the war until people are bled white. That would be a crime. Humanity needs a permanent understanding."

Berlin, May 31,—"The time has come for public opinion to occupy itself with the subject of peace," says George Bernhard, the famous German publicist, in an article in the Vossische Zeitung.

Dr. Bernhard expressed doubt that President Wilson will take any active steps toward mediation, but he seems to think that the war is naturaly drawing towards its close and that the people of the allied nations are fully as desirous for peace as the German public.

Hamburg, May 31.—Albert Ballin, war manager of the German railroads and director of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company, characterized the war as the "greatest, bloodiest and most idiotic war of all times," in an address delivered yesterday at a general meeting of the Woermann Shipping Company.

WILSON RAPPED BY ROOSEVELT

Former President Alleges Executive Uses "Weasel" Words

HYPHENATES FLAYED

Makes Violent Attack on Neutrality That Allows Trampling on United State's Rights

St. Louis, Mo., June 1—Col. Theodore Roosevelt made three speeches in St. Louis yesterday, in which he advocated universal military service, declared the German-American Alliance was guilty of moral treason and anti-Americanism, and denounced President Wilson's Memorial Day speech as weak. Cheering crowds greeted him.

Colonel Roosevelt maintained that President Wilson used "weasel" words which sucked the life out of his phrases and made them meaningless.

"When Mr. Wilson speaks of universal voluntary training," he asserted, "he draws a parallel to a truancy law which would make universal attendance by children at school obligatory to all except those who wanted to keep away."

Mr. Roosevelt averred that he thought well of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Ford. "I like them in private life," he added. "They are nice, amiable men. But I cannot join them in any wild mental joy rides, which is what I should be compelled to do if I should take their ideas seriously."

Colonel Roosevelt addressed the largest crowd at the City Club in the afternoon, where he said that neutrality that allowed trampling on American rights could not be tolerated and that there could be no Americans who were not Amaricans to the heart.

"I denounce the German-American Alliance with all my soul," he shouted. "The acts of leaders constitute moral treason to our government and our people."

Colonel Roosevelt left at 4:20 p. m. He will speak at Newark, N. J., tonight.

NEW RIGGS BANK VICTORY

Court Holds Comptroller May Not Retain $5,000 Fine Imposed on Institution

As was stated in the Gazette, the District of Columbia Supreme Court yesterday held that Comptroller Williams may not retain a $5,000 fine he imposed upon the Riggs National Bank and also held that the Comptroller may not impose further penalties as the bank alleged he had threatened to do.

The decision disposes of the undecided points in the bank's celebrated civil suit against Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams in which it charged them with conspiracy to destroy it.

Comptroller Williams had imposed a fine of $5,000 which Treasury Department withheld from interest due the bank on government bonds, The bank alleged the Comptroller threatended also to fine it at the rate of $100 a day while certain of his orders were uncomplied with. The decision of the court today is a victory for the bank in that respect. All the bank's charges of personal malice and persecution by the treasury officials were dismissed. Last week three of the bank' officers were acquitted of a perjury charge in connection with the civil suit decided yesterday.

The case began a year ago and Justice McCoy has had it under advisement since last July.

The right of a comptroller to assess penalties against banks which fail to comply with his lawful orders was upheld by the court. The $5,000, while in the nature of a penalty, was not an assessment, but a withholding of interest due it from the Treasury.

LECTURE BY EDITOR.

Tells Colored People that Education Is Prime Necessity.

Professor W. B. Adams, editor of the Brunswick, Ga., Appeal, delivered an address on Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church on the subject "Backward Steps."

He said one of the saddest backward steps the negro youth is making is allowing themselves to invade the larger cities in great numbers, standing around waiting for something easy to come to them to do. He said the happiest and brightest future for the negro youth must be dug out of the soil and cut out with an axe. and that as is necessary to give this opportunity for health, happiness and prosperity to the race, country schools, must be provided, where the negro youth can be taught and educated while the other members of the family are engaged in healthy toil. Second, the negro must be made to feel that when he is accused of crime, he shall be asured of a fair trial under the law. And that whenever the white people guarrantee these blessings to the negro, then the negroes, will go backs to the country in droves.

But until this is done the farms will be deserted, cities overcrowded. work will be scarce and crimes will increase.

Professor Adams said the best friends the colored people have are among the good white people of the South.

He will lecture next Tuesday night at the same church.

MAN AND WOMAN SHOT

General Fight at Houseboat in Northeastern Section of the City Last Night

In a general melee in the northeastern portion of the city at midnight last night a man and a woman were shot, another man was seriously cut on the head and eye and a house and an ark on the river bank were almost wrecked by missile which were thrown during the fight. Charles Sorrell, a white man with a penitentiary record, was shot through the right breast and his throat was cut by his brother, Samuel Sorrell, Maggie Scott, a colored woman, was shot in the eye with a slug from a gun fired by Charles Sorrell, and George Milstead, a brother-in-law of the two Sorrells, was cut on the head. The Scott woman is a patient at the Alexandria Hospital and will lose the sight of her eye. The two Sorrels were given a hearing this morning before Police Justice Caton and were held for the action of the grand jury.

The Sorrels live in an ark on the river front beyond the canal and the Milsteads live in a house near by. The two brothers started quarreling during the night and Charles Sorrell was ejected from the boathouse. He gathered an armfull of bricks and commenced a bombardment of the ark, knocking out the windows and finally breaking down the door. His brother took refuge in the Milstead home which Charles Sorrell also attacked with brick and stones. He finally loaded an old musket with slugs and fired it through the window of the house. The shot struck the woman. Samuel Sorrell then fired at his brother, the bullet taking effect in the breast. A general mixup followed in which Milstead received his injuries and in which Charles Sorrell has his throat cut.

REV. DR. ALLISON AT BRISTOL

Delivers Annual Literary Address at King College

Perhaps the most important meeting in the history of King College at Bristol was held by the board of curators Tuesday morning when the body assembled in annual session for the transaction of routine business and the discussion of the probable relation of the college to the new synod of Appalachia.

The King College Alumni and Old Students' Association met in the afternoon when Rev. Dr. Jno. Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Alexandria, delivered the annual literary address.

A large audience greeted Dr. Allison and the members of the 1916 graduating class at the final exercises. Dr. Allison had been invited to deliver the address. His subject was "Strive to Excel." In connection with the splendid ideals which he held before the young men of the graduating class he paid a beautiful tribute to King College and the splendid work which the "Godly men have done who founded and maintained the institution through its years of adversity.

NO PEACE IN SIGHT.

A. Beach, an International News Service correspondent, who has just returned from Berlin, to New York gives an interesting description of conditions in the Fatherland. Among other things he says: Germany is ready and eager for peace. If Germany could do today what the nation most wishes to do, the war would stop, guns would be stacked, swords would be sheated and pens drawn.

Recent reports from London, Paris and Berlin indicate as much, and they should be believed.

But frequently these reports, or at least those emanating from London and Paris, either stop with the bare fact that Germany spirit is broken, and that the wish is fathered by economic conditions which must soon force the empire, through stomach cravings, to bend the knee in supplication, Such reports M. Beach says, should not be believed, for the facts do not sustain them. Belief in such reports is a serious obstacle in the path of peace, because false hopes are raised, and any or all peace efforts may be delayed until the illusion is again dispelled by the spectacle of Germany intact and fighting .Of extreme importance in this connection is the fact that there are 4,000,000 men in uniform in Germany who have not yet seen any front—which for a long time to come insures the country against a shortage of men.

As for food, the German is satisfied that he will eat his way through another winter, with as much nourishment as he absorbed the past winter, which, for the time being at least, removes food as a peace dictator.

The German spirit the correspondent declares, is in no wise broken. The German is sufficiently eager for peace to fight for it. But he will not ask for it, as he firmly believes that he is fighting a war of self-defense.

Probably no single fact has done as much to keep the feeling alive in the German as the repeated declarations of Premier Asquith that the British sword will never be sheathed until Prussian militarism is destroyed and the smaller nations are secured against destruction by their bigger brothers.

This determination makes no impression on the German mind and only stimulates his heart. For Prussian militarism is himself, and he scoffs at any British concern for the smaller nations as the rankest sort of hyprodicy.

In Germany at the present time one does not discern the faintest prospect of peace. But one does discern what is everywhere evident, and that is concentrated preparation for the continuation of the war.

MUST KEEP IN THE LIMELIGHT.

Theodore Roosevelt, who split his party in 1912 by attempting to ride for a third time into the Presidential chair, is again stumping the country on the same mission. His arguments to show why he should be allowed to treat with contempt an established lex non scripta are not appealing to the people of the country as had hoped, and his speeches are punctuated closely with attacks upon President Wilson's policy and flings at others who fail to see political economy through his glasses. A man tossed a penknife close to Roosevelt a few days ago which was magnified by some of the ex-president's satalites as an attempt to assassinate him, while an alleged plot on the part of some suspicious looking man in a certain city to shoot the Colonel is also being spread from Dan to Beersheba. It is difficult to imagine any one desires to do bodily harm to Roosevelt, as he is generally regarded as a brutem fulmen (harmless thunder bolt).

George Washington was a federalist and held theories not adopted by Thomas Jefferson and others of his day. Some of Washington's convictions are totally ignored in our day, and as democracy strikes its roots deeper and deeper principles held by certain fathers of the republic are looked upon as obsolete and not applicable to the present. His example, however, of retiring from the Presidential office and his recommendation that no man should hold this position over eight years should be to all Americans as the laws of the Medes and Persians. Although this practical suggestion was made when the nation was in its infancy, it is as practical today as it was then..

Roosevelt may be endowed by nature with gifts necessary for a representative man, but surely this country has had enough of him during the past quarter of a century. He has already held the position of chief executive virtually two terms and has enjoyed more at the public expense than any other man who has figured in our history. It is time he was stepping aside.

The fact that he is a would-be third termer is exasperating and acts seriously upon certain persons whose brains may be slightly addled,. Ulysses S. Grant made the mistake of his life when he allowed Roscoe Conkling to present his name before the republican convention as a candidate for a third term. Grant made no attempt to accelerate his boom but Roosevelt is appearing on the stump daily attempting to convince people that he should be given another term in the White House.

CARRANZA'S DEMANDS..

It is suggested that now that the mystery of the Mexican envoy Mendez' visit to Washington has been solved and his denials of possession of a note from Carranza shown to have been diplomatic in their nature, it is ascertained the heralded note is as full of interest a conservative speculation predicted for it. The Carranza demands are phrased in polite and considerate language, but they are nevertheless demands that express a determined purpose upon the part of the first chief to protect the interests of his country as he sees them.

Carranza asks the United States to inform him why the American troops are kept in the country in the face of their accomplished mission and sets forth the ability of his government to care for the internal order of Mexico. He expresses an interest to know when the troops will be recalled and intimates that in case his inquiries are not satisfactorially replied to his government will be forced to look upon the further presence of the Americans as unfriendly and as constituting an invasion of Mexican soil.

The note is self-respecting and the inquiries and requests made by Carranza are entirely with the range of his right. The United States has not caught Villa, it has retired its forces from the advanced positions they held and there is no evident activity in the direction of catching the master bandit. Without success in the work they undertook—although there has been a scattering of bandit groups—and without any other reason to advance for their continued presence in Mexico, the American troops have but one thing left and that is to retire.

If the United States is satisfied that Carranza cannot protect the border, if it is satisfied that American and other interests are imperiled, then it must admit that the presence of it troops in Mexico constitutes intervention and that the construction of armed invasion is the legitimate one for Carranza to make. Either the United States is or is not at war with Mexico. If it is, then it can afford to ignore the Carranza note; if it is not, then it has no other course open than to retire its forces.

NEWS OF THE DAY

British casualties during May in all the theaters of war in which British forces are fighting totaled 1,767 officers and 28,470 men.

A record of a submarine staying out on a trip lasting 46 days, without touching land, has been achieved by a British undersea boat. This feat excels any known record during the war by any other of the belligerent craft. During its long journey the British submarine participated in many thrilling episodes, including the sinking of more than one German warcraft.

A battle between British colonial forces and Guatemalan revolutionists has been fought in the district of Cayo, adjacent to the republic of Guatemala, and five men, including a member of the British force, were killed. Government manufacture of armor plate for future American warships in an $11,000,000 Federal plant, which has been strongly recomended by Secretary Daniels since he became the head of the Navy Department, became assured yesterday when the House sitting in committee of the whole, approved the Tillman bill as a rider on the House Naval Appropriation bill by a vote of 180 to 125. The Senate passed the Tillman bill two months ago.

Premier Asquith, of England sas:—"The German chancellor's last speech failed to indicate that Germany is prepared to consider peace terms safeguarding the interests of the allies." Count Tisza, Hungarian premier says—"So long as the responsible statesmen of England and France thinks as they speak there is no chance of peace." President Rodzianko, of the Russian duma says—"Russia will continue the fight until Germany puts her cannons in a pile and accepts the allies' terms."

It became known yesterday that the Kansas City police Sunday received word that an attempt would be made to shoot Col. Roosevelt during his visit to Kansas City. Word of the plot came from Leavenworth, where the man who made the threat against the Colonel's life is an inmate of the Soldiers' Home. This man, who confided his intentions to a comrade, made a similar attempt several years ago in Montana, but his plans were discovered and he was arrested before Roosevelt's arrival.

A. M. Keppel, superintendent of the Washington Terminal Company, last night denied the claim that the number of employes of the yard on strike jumped to 400 yesterday. "Our files show that only 250 men have left their jobs." said Mr. Keppel, "and all of the places have been filled Everything is running smoothly and there will be no interruption with train schedules. When asked if any steps toward arranging arbitration conferences had been taken, Mr. Keppel said: "There can be no arbitration. The situation has gone too far for that."

Gen. Carranza's latest note, bluntly questioning the good faith of the United States government and, with a threat of armed resistance, demanding withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, was presented at the State Department yesterday by Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican Ambassador designate. No one in official circles would attempt to forecast just what course the President might decide upon. There was complete unanimity, however, in the belief that there would be no immediate withdrawal of the Pershing expedition.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Mrs. Marrieta Elva Joanson, widow of Lafayette F. Johnson, a pioneer resident of Bristol, died yesterday, in her ninety-ninth year. She had resided in Bristol since 1857.

President Wilson, who thought several days ago he might attend the Virginia Democratic convention at Roanoke tomorrow, decided yesterday that it would be impossible for him to go. He so informed Representative Glass, who extended the invitation.

James Canter, alleged accomplice in the assault and murder of Mrs. Maud Wilson, was placed on the stand in his own defense in Circuit Court at Abingdon yesterday. He corroborated the statement of his mother that he was at the home of his parents, both during the afternoon and night of the day the crime was committed.

The board of trustees of Virginia Intermont College, at Bristol, acting in conjunction with the Virginia Baptist Education Commission, has inaugurated a campaign to raise $50,000 for enlargement and new equipment. It is proposed to erect a new building, with laboratories, etc., so as to bring the equipment up to a high standard and to give the institution standing as a junior college.

Acting under a statue enacted by the General Assembly in March, Governor Stuart yesterday appointed Benjamin Harrison, a contractor and business man, Mayor of the newly created city of Hopewell. Mayor Harrison, with members of the City Council, also appointed yesterday, will assume the reins of government July 1, superseding the administrative board which has directed the affairs of Hopewell since its temporary reorganization early in the year.

W. C. Hughes, of Gilmore Mills, near Clifton Forge, engaged Tuesday night in a pistol duel with a negro burglar, who invaded the room in which Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were sleeping. The negro rifled the rooms on the first floor, securing a quantity of jewelry. He then made his way to Mr. and Mrs. Hughes room. When they awoke the negro crawled under the bad and opened fire on Mr. Hughes. The shots were returned and the negro finally escaped, unwounded, it is believed.

Another chapter in the Bristol post-office fight came yesterday when it became known that the House Committee on Public Building and Grounds has approved a $130,000 post office building to be erected on the Virginia side of the twin city. A public building bill which will be reported to the House by the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds will carry the congressional authorization for the building. The new structure will give the community of Bristol, two post-office buildings, one on the Tennessee side and the other on the Virginia.

Lewis Shelton and Robert Scott, negroes, believed to be the murderers of Leong Tong, the Chinaman, in Petersburg, last week, were arrested Tuesday. A number of negroes taken in custody were carried to the Chinese restaurant where the murder was committed, and the proprietors pointed out Shelton and Scott as the men who did the work.It seems that one night last week two negroes entered the restaurant and became so disorderly that they were ordered out. They went out declaring they would return and get even. They soon returned, armed with bricks, with the intention of "getting even" with the proprietor, a Chinaman. One of the bricks thrown struck Leong Tong on the head, breaking his skull and causing his death later in the hospital.

Reports coming from all sections of Culpeper county, and Madison and Rappahannock counties, continue to tell of damage done by the two day storm of wind, rain and hail which visited that section. On the Norwood farm, belonging to Turner Patrie, near Brandy, a large barn was destroyed by the wind and four head of cattle killed. On the Farley estate the destruction of gardens and growing crops was almost complete. In Haywood, Madison county, tin roofs were cut to pieces by the hail, which fell in great quantities, the size of quinea eggs. The wheat and rye crops are a total loss, and gardens will have to be plowed up and entirely replanted. The damage to the corn is great. Three miles below Culpeper several freight cars were blown from the track during the storm, which also unroofed and destroyed many buildings in the same section. The fall of rain was the greatest known for years.

RAPS WILSON IN REICHSTAG.

Members Declares Him Unacceptable As Peace Mediator.

Berlin, June 1.—At the session of the Reichstag yesterday Dr. Gustav Stresemann, National Liberal, in an address rejected the idea that President Wilson would be available as a peace mediator.

"If you take a vote of the German people," said Dr. Stresemann, "only a small minority would accept President Wilson as a mediator, after he has rendered it possible for our enemies to keep going in a military way by intensifying the possibility for the manufacture of munitions, after he has done nothing whatever to utilize the vast power of a great world state to guarantee the shipment of provisions to Germany, after we have found that he has ever raised his hand threateningly and proceeded against us with all his power when we tried to defend ourselves against the miserable starving-out war.

"We would not reject the peace mediation of a really neutral power, possibly the President of Switzerland, but Preesident Wilson's hand we reject, and we believe a great mass of the German people approve our rejection of it."

The speaker's words were greeted with loud applause, mingled with shouts of disapproval from the Socialists.

Herr von Graefe, Conservative, sharply attacked the Government, accusing it of weakness in dealing with the United States. He was answered as sharply by Dr. Karl Helfferich, speaking for the first time, as Secretary of the Interior.

Herr Hirsch, National Liberal, asked "Do you believe seriously that President Wilson wants to do anything favorable to Germany?"

"You know he does not if you recall the answer he sent to the Emperor on the subject of breaches of international law by our enemies," said Herr Hirsch, answering his own question.

THE WAR IN AFRICA.

General Smuts Faces Strongly Entrenched German Army.

London, June 1.—The British invasion of German East Africa, has been carried further into the interior and one of the British columns is now confronted with a German army, which has taken up strong defensive positions. The following official statement in regard to this campaign was given out here yesterday:

"Generals Smuts (the British commander) reports that our column, which is advancing down the Panagni River, reached the south end of the Egare Mountains on the 29th and located the enemy near Nikocheni, occupying a strong entrenched position on a narrow neck between the mountains and the river."

121 SHIPS TORPEROED

Only One American Vessel, The Leelanaw, on List.

Washington, June 1.—Official figures published by the British Embassy show that up to the end of April neutral nations had lost 121 ships sunk by submarines.

Although the State Department has had a vast amount of diplomatic correspondence on this subject, the list contains the name of only one American ship, the Leelanaw, sunk July 25, last year.

Norway has by far the heaviest sufferer with 62 ships lost. Denmark lost 22, Sweden 20, Holland 7, Greece5 and Spain 4 ships.

CONDITIONS IN GERMANY

Food Situation Becoming More Alarming Daily

London, June 1—A careful investigation by a correspondent of the actual food situation in Germany reveals the fact that conditions are becoming worse daily.

Officials are no longer able to conceal the alarming state of affairs. The food situation is actually threatening to become the most important factor of the great war.

It has been said that the German government prompted the alarming reports of a food shortage months ago with a view to misleading their enemies. This idea is entirely unfounded.

It is obvious that the German authorities are unable to stay food riots throughout the country. Thousands of women and children are waiting all night in front of the provision stores, and there is ever-growing discontent of the people, which is apparent on all sides. A perusal of the German newspapers discloses a wealth of occurrences, revealing the real conditions.

Complaints are heard everywhere over the difficulty of obtaining supplies, which are constantly dwindling.

The gravity of the situation is shown by the appointment of Herr von Bactocki as "food dictator,' whose first efforts have not succeeded in improving the situation.

THREATENED STRIKE

Telegraphers May Walk Out on Eve of Convention

New York, June 1—Efforts made to reach an agreement in the dispute between the Western Union and the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America were futile yesterday. At the headquarters of the union it was said last night that if the demands of the union are not agreed to today a strike on June 6, on the eve of the Republican national convention in Chicago, will be declared.

Decisive action was deferred yesterday pending the outcome of a conference that was held during the day between Roland B. Mahany, of the bureau of mediation of the United States Department of Labor, and Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Should a strike of commercial telegraphers be declared, 20,000 Western Union, 10,000 Postal and [illegible] Associated Press operators will be affected.

"Don't mush down in cream"
"Don't chaff or crumble in the package"

The first taste of New Post Toasties reveals the fact that something different--something better---has arrived for the breakfast table.

The secret is in the flavor--a self-developed flavor of pearly white Indian corn--not the flavor of cream and sugar upon which other flakes have to depend.

And notice, too, the appearance of New Post Toasties, particularly the tiny bubbles on the surface of each flake. These bubbles are a distinguishing feature--produced by the quick, intense heat of a new patented process of manufacture.

New Post Toasties do not "chaff" of crumble in the package, and they don't mush down in cream like other flakes. They're more substantial and are altogether more satisfactory than any flakes that have preceded them.

The proof is in the eating--have your grocer send you a package.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.
